GOVERNOR EASLEY TO APPEAR ON SMART START KIDS PROGRAM

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley and six More at Four children will star on WRAL's "Smart Start Kids" program on Saturday morning, April 12. Easley will be showing the children around his office in the Capitol building and answering questions about his duties as governor.

"Smart Start Kids" is a half hour program produced by WRAL with cooperation from the North Carolina Partnership for Children. Each week, the show stars 3 to 5-year-old children learning and exploring while they visit places across the state. The show aims to produce a model of good child-rearing practices for parents and children to follow.

Smart Start Kids airs across the state on five commercial stations and UNC-TV. The show airs at: 7:30 a.m. on Saturdays on WRAZ in Raleigh and Durham; 10 a.m. on Saturdays on WRAL in Raleigh; 7 a.m. on Saturdays on WWWB in Charlotte; 9 a.m. on Sundays on WJZY in Charlotte; 8:30 a.m. on Sundays on WILM in Wilmington; and at 7:30 a.m. on Sundays on UNC-TV across the state.
